

FEBRUARY
2023
£4.99

HOUSE & GARDEN

A country house reborn

9 770043 575278 02 >

GUIDING LIGHTS

Bright ideas for a warm winter glow

AN ODE TO COMFORT

*Veere Grenney
on inviting interiors*

MAGNIFICENT MAGNOLIAS

Beautiful blooms on a Cornish estate

The Art Edit... Continued

37. TRISH MITCHELL is a Cape Town-based fine artist, who has found her artistic home in capturing the numinous quality portrayed in the light, form and sublime delicacy of flowers. A lover of beauty, Trish believes that great art expresses itself with poetry and grace through the mastery of all aspects of technique, and it is her great joy to dedicate her life to this pursuit. Trish paints on a larger scale in oils and her paintings are held in private collections around the world. Visit www.trishmitchellfineartist.com follow @trishmitchellfineartist on Instagram or email trish@trishmitchellfineartist.com to find out more.

38. MONCASSO specialises in beautiful, statement wall art and home décor. They have hundreds of unique designs to choose from, in a range of sizes and styles. Moncasso gives you the freedom to turn your home into a masterpiece. All pieces come in a choice of ready-to-hang framing options, are sustainable, eco-friendly and handmade to order in the UK. Visit www.moncasso.com and follow @moncasso.official on Instagram.

39. JOHN NOLAN's work is colour. He explores colour through his abstract, stylized and contemporary styles. John moves from one style to another, always with the same vibrant palette. Each artist has their own unique modus operandi, for John, switching styles keeps his work fresh, and allows one painting to mature in his mind, while working on another in a different style. His mantra is "Paint what you feel, not what you see". Visit www.nolanart.com and follow @johnnieart on Instagram.

40. KIMBERLEY WILLIS-MITCHELL is an acrylic abstract painter based in Sydney, Australia. Kimberley resides adjacent to Sydney Harbour and is inspired by the evolving patterns and tones of the harbour horizon and city-scape. Capturing the flurry of yacht movements across the harbour is the central focus of each painting. Kimberley's original artworks can be purchased at kimberleywillismitchell.com

41. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

42. KATIE WYER is an Australian artist known for her inspiring and empowering artworks that exhibit beauty within a perfectly imperfect mess. Her raw and authentic art reminds her audience that despite the rips, smudges and scribbles there is beauty, in essence, the imperfections are the reason it's beautiful. Pictured is 'A Beautiful Mess'. For originals, prints and canvases, visit www.katiwyerart.com or follow @katiwyerart on Instagram.

43. DIANE MAGEE is a painter based in Co. Cork. Depicted here is 'Doolin' from her Burren landscape series, where she mainly paints 'en plein air' using oils as her preferred medium. This painting is now in a private collection in Dublin. To view more of her work, visit www.dianemagee.com or email Diane at dianemageeart@gmail.com

44. JILLIAN ZEPEDA loves telling stories about relationships and people. These stories aren't just her stories they are everyone's stories. That is what she tries to convey through her style of "Abstract from Realism". It all comes from a place of reality she simply transposes it through shapes, colour and movement. Visit jillianzepeda.com email contact@jillianzepeda.com or call +1 949 326 8845.

45. Untouched and wild landscapes, nature, the evening sky, and sunsets provide endless inspiration to LAMA ISSA's work. Lama likes to incorporate vivid colours and movement, and through experimenting, she creates paintings that are physically exciting and rich. In her work, her goal is to capture nature's energy and strive to show its beauty. Visit www.lamaissa.com and follow @lamaissaart on Instagram.

46. MEGAN SPILLARS is an American artist and oil painter based in Raleigh, North Carolina. Her impressionist style features calming landscapes as well as bold florals and figurative work. She draws inspiration from nature and through observations of the simple yet beautiful moments in life. Her work can be found at meganspillars.com and follow @meganspillarsart on Instagram.

47. Swiss artist CLAUDIA MINI is an intuitive abstract painter who is especially interested in pattern. A gifted colourist, she uses a seemingly inexhaustible vocabulary of various lines and shapes. At times, Claudia's monotypes and acrylic paintings have the look of street graffiti, other times, she appears to allude to topographies of imaginary places. Biomorphic shapes, cellular structures, and plant life also appear in her work, always transformed in the prism of abstraction. Visit www.claudiamini.com or email info@claudiamini.ch

48. Inspired by the idyllic countryside, JUDI MORTON is a landscape fine artist who seeks to capture the 'essence' of a place. Browse her beautiful collection at judimorton.co.uk and follow @judimorton1 on Instagram.

49. HALEY RESSL is a mixed-media abstract painter based in Austin, Texas. With a background in fine arts and product design, she employs layered washes of acrylic paints and inks as an evolving study of movements, rhythms, and stimuli. For more information, visit www.haleyresslart.com and follow @haley.ressl.art on Instagram.

50. KATHY STANLEY is a Jamaican-born artist living on the US West Coast. A visionary artist and ecopsychology educator, her acrylic paintings reflect meditative inner journeys of exploring the ecological self. She gravitates towards images that celebrate earth, the rising feminine spirit and invoke wholeness, joy and aliveness. Shown is 'Archangel'. Connect with her at SacredArtJourneys.com and follow @kstanleyart on Instagram.

51. "Nature teaches us so much, you just have to look!", says YVONNE PRAEGER who finds her inspiration for her oil paintings in flora and fauna. The German artist, currently living near Bern in Switzerland, discovered painting for herself early on in her career. Her artworks capture her fascination for nature as she creates plasticity through a dedicated use of colour, light and shadows. The award winning artist has become popular through her "blow-up" effect in her flower paintings that creates a special connection with the spectator. Find out more at www.yvonnepraeger.com or follow @yvonne_praeger on Instagram.

52. JULIANE BOULANGER is internationally known for her vibrant, colourful paintings. Most of her works contain elements of popular culture, and she uses a variety of media. Her paintings are privately collected in Europe and the US. To view her work, visit julianeboulner.com and follow @boulangerie_des_arts on Instagram.

53. IAIN HOLDER takes inspiration from the vast open spaces of the moors and beaches around his home in North Devon. His artworks touch on themes of isolation and emptiness while exploring humanity's relationship with spaces in-between. They are often infused with environmental/sociological and political messages. He received a Ba Hons degree in Photography from Falmouth College of Arts in 2006. Visit iainesebastian.com or email info@iainesebastian.com to find out more.

54. ALEEA JAQUES creates statement pieces for a memorable home. Her paintings are conversational, bold and playful. Her work tells a story through the expression on a face, the layering of paints, and a sense of movement within the design. She uses drips, splatters, and value to achieve areas of interest. All this helps create a storied piece of art, one that cannot be ignored. Browse aleeaartstudio.com and follow @aleeaartstudio on Instagram.