18. JO DUNCAN-SMITH is an MFA student at West Dean College in West Sussex. Working mostly in acrylic paint on canvas, she explores the sensation of being in the landscape, responding to nature en plein air. See more at www.joduncansmith.com and follow @joduncansmithart on Instagram.

19. KAY MOORE works in a variety of sculpture and build styles, designing and producing props and other three dimensional pieces, mainly to commission. Based in Bath, she is currently working on scale set builds for a short film. Visit www.kaymoore.co.uk or email kay.moore.pix@gmail.com to find out more.

20. DOROTHY FAGAN's Diva Collection asks 'who are we becoming?' Painted since the pandemic shut us in, the collection reflects new patterns. As we embody our radiance, we emerge women lightened in the heart, drawing strength and endurance from within. Find out more at www.dorothyfagan.com or follow @dorothyfaganartist on YouTube and Instagram.

21. Swiss-Californian artist, ALLISON ZURFLUH, is based in Venice, Italy. Her painting reflects a long-time immersion in the northern Venetian Lagoon and champions the protection of one of the world's most beguiling wetlands. Working in oils, Allison is particularly interested in the layering of colour on the rough canvas, which embraces the natural environment of the Venetian marshland. See more at allisonzurfluhartist.ch and follow @allisonzurfluh_artist on Instagram.

22. ABBY OBER is an American painter from the East Coast. Her works explore expressive colour and simplified shapes inspired by her graphic design background and travel experiences. She hopes to give viewers a new and timeless view of nature with her serene compositions. To see more and contact, visit abbyober.com and follow @abbyoberart on Instagram.

23. BEC ROSENTHAL is an Australian artist who seeks to capture intricate detail in her floral subjects. Bec's work is characterised by bold, slightly distorted forms and exaggerated colours that ignite a sense of vibrancy and energy. Visit www.becrosenthal.com and follow @bec.rosenthal.art on Instagram.

24. ONNO DRÖGE is an artist that is strongly inclined to softness and roundness, to fluid lines and shapes, to space in and around objects. His work, whether a painting or a wooden sculpture, explores the connection to the earth, nature and colours and the memories and feelings associated with them. Visit www.artonno.nl to find out more.

25. LORI TATREAU creates paintings and drawings by mixing many mediums and textures. She uses abstract forms as stand-ins for emotions, body parts, people or landscapes trying to interact but often alienated from each other. Visit loritatreau.com and follow @loritatreastudio on Instagram.

26. THERESA HENSON is a sculptor living in Idaho who works with wood, ceramics, and fibres. She is inspired by the proliferation of forms in diverse ecosystems as well as iconography, baking, and motions of daily tending of caring for life. Learn more at henson.net and follow @henson2169 on Instagram.

27. JANA DETTMER, German artist based in Cologne and the South of France, produces her works in series like abstract landscapes, monochrome paintings and gestural abstractions. Uniting them all is an intense engagement with reduced colour schemes that sometimes leads to monochromy. Through reduction and condensation she creates moments of clarity and intensity that are by turns fascinating, cathartic and liberating. Visit janadettmer.com, and follow her on Instagram @janadettmer

28. Since 2018 TERESA BELLINI has attended painting classes in Padua. During the 2020 lockdown, she experienced an intense creative period that led her to consider painting as an essential part of her life. She has participated in group exhibitions in Italy, Europe and United States and has exhibited her artworks in two solo exhibitions in Italy. She is represented by two Galleries in New York.
