The Art Edit...

1. NANCY HILLIARD JOYCE is an American painter who creates semi-abstract and untrammelled garden settings peppered with botanicals and bird imagery. She often incorporates gold leaf, soft pastel and hand-painted images in both oils and acrylics. Her work is collected worldwide in hotels, homes, and public spaces. Visit www.nancyjoycegallery.com or follow @NancyJoyceArt on Instagram to discover more.

2. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

3. AMANDA TWYFORD's art is a response to the world she inhabits. Focused on capturing the essence of a subject, she utilises her skills to convey energy and vitality. This, in combination with a belief in the power of a brushstroke, gives her oil paintings a timeless quality. Visit www.amandatwyford.com and follow @amanda_twyford on Instagram.

4. ANNIE BROADLEY is one of Scotland's most exciting painters. Prestigious artist Paul Martin describes her work as having "a profound and beautiful intensity". Annie's paintings have been shown in galleries in Edinburgh and Glasgow. What interests and inspires Annie usually belongs to the natural world. Her work varies in subject and size, so it's definitely worth visiting her website www.anniebroadley.com or emailing annie@anniebroadley.com to find out more.

5. KERI KATT is an artist from Rockland County, New York. She creates semi-abstract atmospheric, moody and/or dreamlike landscapes utilising acrylic mediums and often organic materials sourced from nature. Her work is emotionally charged and is a narrative of her physical and spiritual journey through life. Her inspiration comes by way of observation of life's ebbs and flows and are a reflection of nature and memory. To find out more, visit www.kerikattart.com or search @keri.katt.art on Instagram.

6. CAROLYN M. JONES CARR is an artist, author and entrepreneur. She enjoys creative problem-solving, whether in art, interiors, real estate development, or IT solutions. If you love beach sunrises and sunsets, her paintings and prints will bring colour and tranquility into your home or office. If you would like to learn more about her work, and make a purchase, visit carolynmjonescarr.com

7. SATOMI TANJI is an abstract artist based in Japan. She creates fluid art and crystal-like, transparent artworks. Using the inspiration from the energy of the new era, she is expressing abstractly and freely. Visit www.satomitaniart.com and follow @satomi_tanji_art on Instagram.

8. JULIA NOBLE is a visual artist based in London and her aim is to make unashamedly joyous, uplifting artworks that bring colour and cheer to any room. This work 'Bambuseae Caerulean', 2020, is part of her 'Jungle' series. Her work is being shown at gallery@oxo, London from 13-18th October 2021. Julia's website can be found at www.noblejulia.com and follow @jujunoble on Instagram.

9. JAN ERICHSEN is a German artist living in Kiel on the Baltic Sea coast. In his work, Jan aims to capture the extraordinary in everyday life with motifs that refer mostly to the sea. By using alternately aqueous, glazing and thicker, saturated paint layers, he depicts the details that make up the particular atmospheric mood of the chosen scenery. Jan's aim is to give expression to both the obvious and invisible connections between nature's and life's elements. Visit www.fjordlicht.de and follow @jan_erichsen_art on Instagram.

10. DANIELE DÉSOURDY is a Canadian artist. Her greatest sources of inspiration are nature and animals. She expresses her creativity with acrylic through the movement of hyperrealism. With the purpose of bringing the subjects to life, it is her way of sharing the splendor as well as the wisdom of the wildlife. Visit danieledesourdy.com and follow @danieledesourdy on Instagram.

11. REDIN WINTER is an American expressionist painter specialising in abstracts and semi-abstract landscapes. Redin explores ideas of nature and escapism through a layering process of colour, movement, drips, and texture. Her paintings reside in private collections across the United States and Europe. For further information, visit www.redinwinter.com or email redin@redinwinter.com

12. JANE SWAN is an English watercolourist on a large scale. Pictured is 'Lighthouse', 117cm x 234cm. The size of the paintings is to do with her physical involvement in the painting process. She wants the viewer to share this involvement. Email janeswan.art@gmail.com and visit artuk.org to find out more.

13. DEBORAH HAMON is an artist, adventurer, nature lover, trail runner, and mother. She was born in Australia and lives in the San Francisco Bay Area.
