1. "Lost At Sea", acrylic on canvas, 2m x 1.8m, by Susie Pearce. Susie is an artist from Cornwall and through a process of reflection, she strives to capture the emotional energy of the magnificent landscape around her. She specialises in large scale, elemental, abstracted representations of land, sea and sky. Earth, water, air and fire are depicted through intense colour, expressive texture and explosive movement. For more information see www.susiepearce.com or email susie@susiepearce.com

2 Henry Holland, a British artist based in Tokyo, uses his knowledge and experience of working with paint and through a state of meditative inner peace, recreates visualised landscapes from his imagination in oil on canvas, capturing atmospheric mood and dynamic form. See his gallery at www.henryhollandart.com and visit @henryhollandart on Instagram.

3. Some call it elegance in a jar, the epitome of luxury and style. The House of Bloom & Dice evokes prestige, a commitment to depth and beauty that love has to offer. Each candle carries a story that urges you to embark on your own journey towards love. Visit www.bloomanddice.com and follow @bloomanddice on Instagram.

4. PULLMAN EDITIONS designs striking original limited-edition posters that capture the enduring appeal of Art Deco.
