DECOR DECORUM

1. Jennifer Glance finds beauty in the present moment. She is drawn to the landscape, as it is in constant flux, but remains resilient with time, much like the human spirit. The dance of light on water and ethereal clouds are captured in her oil paintings. Her artwork is available at NYC based allartworks.net and galleries in the U.S. Explore her collection at www.jenniferglance.com or follow her on Instagram @jenniferglanceart

2. Affordable, decorative antiques and vintage, inspired by the English country house. Discover a curated collection of vintage home accessories and textiles, antique furniture, art and interesting objects for your home and garden from the relatively new shop Iris and Mabel. Lucy Alcorn, the owner, is naturally drawn to items she would want for her own home. This is a 'go to' website for anyone looking for vintage homeware. Visit www.iris-and-mabel.com and follow @irisandmabel_ on Instagram.

3. Sophie Clarke Designs is an East Anglian based brand specialising in handwoven textiles. Predominantly using natural fibres her fabrics are hand woven using a 16 shaft table loom. Her designs are focused on pushing the boundaries of colour and pattern to create contemporary fabrics for interiors, bringing a modern aesthetic to an ancient craft. Visit www.sophieclarkedesigns.com and follow on Instagram @sophieclarkedesigns

4. Artist Bryan Ryley's work moves back and forth between painting, drawing and collage. In each medium Bryan explores structural systems and serial compositions, developing a new voice with each change of material and scale. Ryley's lyrical tones and richly textured colour is reminiscent of a classical modernist abstraction rooted in Cubist collage and Surrealist inspired abstraction. For more information about Bryan Ryley and his work contact Allison Thompson of AT Art and Interiors at www.allisonthompsonstudio.com and follow @atartinteriors on Instagram.

5. Steven Miller is an abstract artist based in New York, whose work surrounds the interplay of colour, form, and concepts that appear simple, are more complex in reality. He has displayed his vibrant paintings worldwide. To see his stunning collection, visit www.stevenmiller.com and follow on Instagram @smillernyc

6. Annie Moncrieff is an Australian artist. Her vibrant botanical artworks capture the beauty of the natural world. These semi-abstract, exuberant pieces employ thick, textured brushstrokes in mixed mediums. This expressive and painterly style is evident here in, 'The Chelsea Garden'. Follow @anniemoncrieffcreative on Instagram.

7. Caroline Boff is an emerging, international, contemporary artist from the UK. She is a fellow of the Royal Society of Arts and an artist with the global design firm M Moser New York and the art gallery and consultancy Tin Man Art London. She has recently exhibited in Miami and New York with Artavita and in London with the Boomer gallery, Tin Man Art gallery and the New Art Gallery in Bolton, and has upcoming exhibitions in Greece with the Holy Art Gallery, New York with South Art Dealer and in San Diego with Artavita. Visit www.carolineboff.co.uk and follow @artbycarolineboff on Instagram.

8. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, Susan Lizotte, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and Instagram @susanlizotte

9. Fine art keepsakes by Fiadh & Finn are beautifully curated giclée prints, designed and framed in Ireland. Inspired by Irish nature and stories of childhood, they create elegantly and intricately illustrated wall-art, perfect as framed gifts for a new baby or nursery room art. Explore their name art and elegant scenery www.iadhandfinn.ie and Instagram @fiadhandfinn

10. L. Mylott Manning is a New York based fine artist and RISD graduate. She creates Stargate oil paintings imbued with healing energy designed to empower and uplift humanity. Her abstract figurative works demonstrate the relation of the spiritual field to the body. Discover online at www.lmylottmanning.com and follow @lmylottmanning on Instagram.

11. Art by Emma Loizides. Candy-coloured oil paintings of idealised urban landscapes; inspired by city life, travels, and the sensations of colour. Emma is a self-taught artist from London. Her signature style can be found in her candy hued street scenes and energetic urban vistas which evoke escapism. She creates happy, humorous, uplifting works that take people on a journey to London and beyond. www.emmasfineart.com and follow @emmaloizidesartist on Instagram.

12. Ilwad Gabose is a self taught abstract artist and expressionist artist. Her non-geometrical abstract painting style brings understanding of the nature of one's own reality and a clue to life-lessons drawn. The end product invites one to pause, connecting to the piece as the creator of one's own domain. Finally, her inspiration derives from major artists and self-empowerment. This painting is titled Modern abstract Arcadia and a size 40cm x 40cm Visit www.imgabose.com and follow on Instagram @ilwadgabose

13. GAIA HOMEWARE, a mother and daughter venture based in Westerham, Kent will help you create a luxurious and stylish space with their beautiful eco-friendly furniture and homeware. All designed and produced to protect the planet as well as bringing a touch of nature to your home. Alex, co-founder, creator and furniture maker offers a bespoke service for her handcrafted furniture and wooden wares. Appointments can be made through the website or Instagram. Visit www.gaia-homeware.com and follow @gaiahomewareuk on Instagram.

14. Bough House creates hand built ceramics that take inspiration from the beauty of the natural world. The ceramicist, Robin Benson, hopes you'll find a joyfulness in her interpretation of creatures and trees. A percentage of each sale go to charities that support environmental and animal protection and conservation. Visit www.bough.house and @bough.house on Instagram.

15. ALEXANDRA KAUKA is an European artist, who refined her technique at NY Art Students League. She has a passion for gentle abstraction of a magical nature. Her art shows places that are beautiful and mediative, imaginary worlds, but beyond abstraction, one feels and sees reality. Some of her methods are very scientific, resulting in amazing layered effects, truly organic and random in nature. Pictured is "Windmills of your mind" alcohol ink, resin 102cmX 152cm. Visit www.aeristalexandra.com or email kaukaart@gmail.com

16. María Isabel de Lince. Born in Bogotá - Colombia and studied Art and Architectural Design at the Javeriana University. María studied drawing and painting at Cooperartes and with masters: David Manzur, Fernando Dávila and Miguel Moyano. Her work has been exhibited in important spaces in Colombia, United States, Europe and Asia. She has also received national and international recognition.
