In The Studio

1. GISELLE LUDWIG was born in Montreal, Canada and currently works and lives in Düsseldorf, Germany. The artist creates large, colourful mixed media abstract paintings in a spontaneous and unintentional process. With various layers and structures she captures positive spirits in her paintings and tries to transfer these to the viewer. Follow @giselleludwigart on IG and visit giselleludwig.com

2. SUSANNE SCHWIETER was born in Basel, Switzerland and studied at the renowned Kunstakademie Düsseldorf in Germany. She has participated in numerous shows in Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Denmark and the USA. Schwieter is interested in visual language and seeks the close connection between classical oil painting, photography and digital footage. Visit susanneschwieter.com IG: @susanne.schwieter

3. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at susanlizotte.com and on IG @susanlizotte

4. Contemporary, abstract artist MARGHERITA DALL'ORSO gives life to expressionist works that are inspired by emotion, the power of nature and the infinity of the universe. She experiences the creation of each artwork as a magical process, aiming to bring warmth, hope and joy. Shop online at margheritadallorso.com and @margheritadallorsoart on IG.

5. HELEN ANSELL's vibrant paintings capture the spirit of Native Australian Flora and Fauna. Inspired by the wild desert landscape, Helen resides in the heart of Wildflower Country which influences her work. Her work is available as both paper and canvas Fine Art Prints through her website. Visit helenansell.com IG: @helenansellart

6. BARBARA READE is a Canadian artist whose abstract paintings are inspired by both the natural and urban environment. Precise, directional lines intermingling with gestural applications of paint, juxtaposing order alongside wildness. Numerous layers of paint, graphite, wax pastel, and collage ephemera create a rich history on the surface of each piece. Pictured is 'Perish the Thought', 30"x30". Visit barbarareade.com and follow @bdreade_art on IG.

7. CLAIRE HANKEY is a UK-based artist living by the Thames Estuary in Leigh on Sea. She creates tranquil and calming paintings for interiors, drawing inspiration from her local environment, memories and her love of Japanese prints. Visit clairehankeyartist.com or follow @clairehankeyartist on IG.

8. NATALIE SAUNDERS is an artist based out of Melbourne, Australia. She is well-known for her work with acrylics and abstract creations. Drawing from her textile design background, she enjoys working with textures and bold colours. Discover more at nataliesaundersartist.com or on IG @natalie.saunders.artist

9. EMMA POTTAGE is a Devon-based artist whose work is inspired by working with different materials and experimenting with paint. Recently, Emma's work has been reflecting her ongoing battle with an eating disorder. The paintings themselves act as an emotional release and represent a positive turning point in her journey. Visit emmappottageart.co.uk IG @emmappottageart

10. MIYAKAH is a neurodivergent artist and computer scientist working in Synesthesia, Automatism and Ancestralism. Miyakah's work surprises and revels in what is bold, defiant, dynamic and formless; subversion of normativity and authentic communication are all part of Miyakah's ultimate goals as an artist. Visit miyakah.com and follow @miyakahsgorge on IG.

11. PAMELA MADIGAN's eclectic paintings are informed by her intuition, imagination and frequently her sense of humour. What ends up on the canvas or panel is representative of the stories that inhabit her heart. "Under a full moon at midnight they were wed" was inspired by Pamela's lovely neighbours, Zeke and Violet. Acrylic on 61cm x 61cm x 6.3cm cradled wood panel. Visit pamelamadiganart.com or follow her at @pamelamadiganart on IG.

12. CINDY SHAOUL is an NYC-based artist with a Persian-Hungarian background. She creates whimsical and enchanting worlds and is passionate about her art and steadfast belief to remain genuine through her practice. Shaoul has flourished in 2020 and garnered the attention of actress Lily Collins and the like. Pictured is "Stepping Out with Ashley Park" oil on canvas, 20 x 16 inches. Visit cindyshaoul.com and follow @cindyshaoul on IG.

13. Based in Washington, DC, contemporary abstract artist ROBIN DAVISSON, presents lyrical, process-driven work. As with all of Robin's work, 'Kismet', pictured, is inspired by her training as a scientist, eclectic curiosity, and the material surprises she uncovers in gesture. Visit robindavissonart.com and follow @robindavissonart on IG.

14. Australian artist, MARILOU PALAZON, treats her large flower paintings as dramatic sculptural landscapes. Her images navigate the struggle of beauty on the edge of decay and the fragility of life. Her blousy florals are theatrical and monumental in scale. Representing galleries are Sydney Road Gallery, Sydney "Ethereal" exhibition [23rd September-10th October] and Galeria Azur, Madrid. Visit mariloupalazon.com.au IG: @marilou_palazon

15. KIRSTEN KAINZ is a Montana artist, who is deeply inspired by the world around us. Her paintings capture the subtle beauty of our natural world and the intimate connections in our relationships with one another. The paintings and sculptures she produces are available for public and private commission. Visit kirstenkainz.net IG: @kirstenkainzart
