THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

11. CALI REZO is a non-figurative artist. Her work is inspired both by artists she admires and the very heart of natural elements. The radicality of her painting comes from a monochrome palette of blacks and whites, with matt areas and silky signs, where shapes evolve ultimately into a meaning, a writing which echoes an intimate memory of the original gesture. Each painting aims at recovering the emotion of the very first traced signs of her own life. Follow @calirezo_ on Instagram, or visit www.calirezo.com for more details.

12. DAISY WATT, aged 12 years, paints with joy from memory and her imagination. Layers are added, dribbled and splattered, until the picture sings to life and is a mass of colour.
