

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

JUNE 2023 £5.99

'Vent de printemps', 54cm x 45cm. For more information, visit www.stephaniebocquet.com and follow @stephanie_bocquet_ on Instagram.

38. SEBASTIAN MUELLER-SOPPART upcycled his first original in 2011. By evolving the narrative of other artists' paintings, he underlines the impact consumerism has on our environment. His approach creates a visual dialogue between the past and present to dramatize habitat loss, deforestation and marine pollution. Visit www.sopp.art or follow @sopp.art on Instagram.

39. AMELIE GROOSCORS' contemporary impressionist pieces have an ethereal and mystical quality that invites the viewer into warm and serene landscapes, such as an abstract garden or magical pond. In these contemplative and modern vistas, lush colours and intuitively created shapes dance on the linen canvas. Follow @amelie_grooscors on Instagram or email ameliegart@gmail.com

40. JAEI ROZNICKI is a Canadian contemporary artist, working in oils. She has been internationally exhibited and published, and has gallery representation. To follow Jael's career and body of work, find her at www.jaelroznicki.com or follow @jaelroznicki_art on Instagram.

41. MARGARETE SCHRÜFER is a German based artist who works with Origami. In her work, the conceptual artist deals intensively with nature. By transforming natural forms, she creates exciting irritations in photographs and installations. Schrüfer works in the space between reality and fiction. Visit margarete.schruefer.de and follow @margarete.schruefer on Instagram.

42. MARTYNA ALEXANDER is an independent artist living and working in Detroit, MI. Her multidisciplinary practice is centred around painting and design in the fields of art, architecture and culture. With a clear influence taken from historical minimalist painters and a vibrant colour palette, she bounces between exhibitions, commissions, branding design, prints, and illustration. You can learn more @martyna_alexander on Instagram or by visiting www.martynaalexander.com

43. STEVEN PAGE PREWITT lives in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina, USA. A contemporary colourist, Steven's work ranges from abstract landscapes to stylised interpretations of nature, inspired by his mountain surroundings and travels abroad. Steven's work is available direct from his studio stevenpageprewitt.com or Follow @stevenpageprewitt_art on Instagram.

44. "Stormy", by GAYLE FAULKNER. Hear the sound of thunder as the rain moves from soft to pelting. Seek shelter and gaze and listen to the symphony of nature. "Stormy" is a 24" x 18" textural Impressionistic painting. Visit gaylefaulkerfineart.com search @gaylefaulkerartist on Facebook and follow @faulkner.gayle on Instagram.

45. AMANDA WALL works in Brooklyn. Wall is featured in Studio Visit Magazine and is a writer for IdeelArt. Spiritual aura portraits have evolved into subconscious 'alienesque' and anthropomorphic beings. These beings transpired from isolation and a heightened awareness of nature and self. Visit www.amandawallstudio.com or email awall@pratt.edu to enquire.

46. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

47. INA MATHO is a contemporary Norwegian artist who works with acrylic on canvas, using surrealism and cubism to create abstract and figurative works. Her pieces are philosophical, and give the viewer room to interpret the images according to their own emotions and experiences. Follow @ina_matho on Instagram, or email im@inamatho.com

48. Every individual is part of a family, a lineage, a tribal/haploid group and a part of humanity. JENNY BENNETT's works arise from a fascination with Paisley. Patterns built up from shapes and colours which have moved through time and place, as humans have done, over thousands of years. These are beautiful and vibrant works. Visit www.jennybennett.com follow @jennybennett2080 on Instagram and search jennybennett.7777 on Facebook.