

FEBRUARY 2022 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

11. SIS COWIE is an artist from Melbourne, Australia, specialising in figurative art and portraiture. She holds an honours degree in art history from the University of Melbourne and in 2020 was the winner of the prestigious Richard Lester Prize for Portraiture. Cowie aims to revitalise portraiture by conflating technical skill with bold explorations of colour, composition and emotion. Cowie is currently accepting commissions within Australia and internationally. To see more, visit www.siscowie.com and follow @siscowabunga on Instagram.

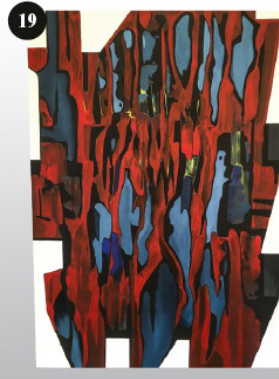

12. YAËLLE BÉATRIX is a young French artist, based in London. Her work aims to give volume and texture to the canvas creating a real focal point in a room. Her tactile pieces are created to dress interiors and make people want to touch them. She feels that touch is as important as sight when it comes to art. To find out more, visit yaelle.beatrix.com and follow @yaelle.beatrix on Instagram.

13. JES ZANGE is an emerging fibre artist using her background in painting to create inventive artwork featuring a complex use of colour and texture. Her method of "painting" with fibre has earned her notoriety in the art community. Visit www.jeszange.com and follow @jeszangeart on Instagram to see more.

14. LEXI HANNAH is a mixed media artist from New York. Her work represents a lighthearted way of being, rooted in an appreciation for all that connects us and the shared experience of inhabiting our bodies in a world of wondrous flora, fauna, people and places. Visit www.lexihannah.studio and follow @lexihannah.art on Instagram.

15. Los Angeles based contemporary artist, SUSAN LIZOTTE, has exhibited her works both in the US and internationally. Creating landscape works, abstract maps and dramatic artworks of Los Angeles, her pieces flow and unfold themselves. Explore her varied collections online at www.susanlizotte.com and follow @susanlizotte on Instagram.

16. Currently rooted in the landscape of the Central Coast, California artist JANET WHITCHURCH reveals the area with a sense of discovery, finding mystery and beauty in the commonplace. She uses the medium of watercolour to explore the effect light has on its subjects and atmosphere. Previous projects included years spent painting and drawing race horses, as well as time spent as a visiting artist at the American Academy in Rome. Visit www.janetwhitchurch.com to view her projects.

17. ZHIBEK ALIPOUR is a contemporary artist from Central Asia living in the Bavarian Alps in Germany. She has a background in linguistics and social sciences and is a member of the Munich Art Association, who has exhibited in private collections in the USA, Germany and the UK. The diversity of her artworks is shown in a range from portraiture to abstracts. As a painter and photographer, Zhibek aims to express the feelings of powerful simplicity, joy and gratitude. Visit www.zhibek.de and follow @zhibek.gallery on Instagram.

18. GUSTAVS FILIPSONS is deeply inspired by his home city of Riga's old architecture and its different moods in different seasons. Mythical silhouettes and symbols had much greater influence on him than the passing Soviet era. When painting, he likes to communicate the inner realm of self, cross the boundaries of the human mind, touch the soul and find revelation through artwork. Winner of "Collectors Vision" international art award and "Power of Creativity" art prize by Contemporary Art Curator magazine. Visit gustavsfilipsons.bertha.me or email gustavsfilipsons@inbox.lv for more details.

19. IAN JAMES BROWN is an artist based in Nottingham who paints and creates to music. Music turns the creative process into a meditative experience, every piece created is a unique experience and a limited edition of one. Visit www.ianjamesbrown.co.uk to learn more or email ian@ianjamesbrown.co.uk

20. JONATHAN GRAY is a linear landscape artist who is known for his eclectic mix of contemporary cityscapes, including London. Jonathan's passion is capturing movement and energy using rapid lines, inspired by the intricacies of architecture. Jonathan has previously exhibited work at the Mall Galleries. Commissions welcome. Visit jonathangrayart.wordpress.com and follow @jonathangrayart on Instagram.